

Mensa International, Ltd.

Executive Director Desirable Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

Please note that the skills and other attributes listed below are those that MIL considers “desirable and useful” and should not be considered “required”

Management skills:

- Effective oral and written communication ability
- Minimum of three years experience in nonprofit administration and management
- Experience with modern principles, methods and techniques of management, administration and planning
- Experience in financial management and control
- Experience in developing and managing commercial contracts

Educational Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree
- Advanced degree desirable

Desirable Attributes

- Fluency in at least one language in addition to English
- Experience of living in different cultures